ARTISTIC DIRECTION

WRIGHT STATE THEATRE

Artistic Director

Wright State University - Four Seasons 2020-2024

Selected and promoted seven productions each year (plays, musicals and dance concert) for Wright State University's Department of Theatre, Dance and Motion Pictures. This position included all aspects of staffing, season selection, fundraising, promotion and audience engagement. During the COVID lockdown, I produced nine online, socially distanced and outdoor productions.

STRUTHERS LIBRARY THEATRE

Artistic Director

Warren, PA - Four Seasons 1995-98

Selected cast, artistic staff and technical personnel for four summer seasons, drawing from NYC, regional and university networks. Worked with Executive Director in all aspects of daily production and management of an Equity Guest Artist theatre using professional and local company. Strong interaction with community and board of trustees for outreach and fund raising. Under my Artistic Direction, the theatre's annual attendance grew 67%.

SUMMER STAGE WRIGHT

Artistic Director

Wright State University - 2003 Inaugural Season

Created and directed a professional university summer theatre incorporating guest artist designers and performers with faculty, staff and students.

NYC TAPWORKS

Co-Artistic Director

New York City - 1983-84

Shared supervising choreography, direction and production of touring and college residencies including performances at Brooklyn Academy of Music, Symphony Space, and The Blue Note.

MAJOR UNIVERSITY SERVICE

Chair, Department of Theatre, Dance and Motion Pictures, 2017-21

Supervise a faculty and staff of 25 full-time and 10 part-time employees in five curricular divisions with more than 250 students in fifteen majors. This department is Wright State University's most visible nationally recognized department with students coming from across the US and graduates working on Broadway, in Hollywood and around the world in all aspects of performing arts.

Director, The Musical Theatre Initiative at Wright State University, since 2013

The Musical Theatre Initiative is an international center dedicated to exploring the history, culture and practice of the Musical Theatre through visiting arts, symposia, international conferences and special programming. Guests have included Leslie Uggams, Jason Robert Brown, Adam Pascal, Tony Walton and numerous teachers of Pop/Rock vocal techniques, period dance styles and cabaret performance.

Head, Musical Theatre Training Program, 1997- 2017

As head of the Musical Theatre Program, my duties include development and implementation of new curriculum, advising Musical Theatre majors, recruiting and supervising adjunct dance and singing faculty, advising the Chair on season selection, recruitment and advising of students, arranging and coordinating visiting artists and other responsibilities as needed. Under my leadership, the program has come to be the most selective programs in the university.

New York City Agents Showcase for Senior Actors, Producer/Director for 19 showcases Produced and directed the department's annual showcase for theatrical agents and casting directors and three days of seminars with working professionals in New York City. This highly successful showcase is considered one of WSU's outstanding graduation capstone/alumni networking experiences.

CELIA Distinguished Visiting Artist Series – Stephen Schwartz and Friends, Co-Producer, April 2013

Created and co-produced the first Distinguished Visiting Artist residency for Wright State University's Center of Excellence for Collaborative Education, Leadership and Innovation in the Arts.
